

Syam and the Fox

Syam was looking for his pet cat. It always came when he called it because it wanted food. But today it didn't come.

Then Syam saw the fox. He knew straightaway what had happened to his cat, because foxes like to eat cats.

Syam was very sad. He missed his cat with its lovely soft fur. Maybe one day soon he will get another cat, and watch out for the fox.

Little Book by Ruth Wickham
Training Fellow, IPGKDRI